A wonderful finca complex in a country setting at las mellizas between Alora and the lakes at El Chorro. The property has been run as an EcoSpa and health and well-being centre has been renovated and fitted to a very high standard. There are three buildings, the main house of more than 150sqm is registered as five star rural accommodation and has 3 en-suite bedrooms with private terraces, lounge, dining room, massage room and sauna. All rooms are air conditioned and the suites and lounge have televisions and internet. There is a second house of 76sqm with one bedroom, lounge, kitchen, bathroom and terraces which is currently used as accommodation for a live in manager. The third structure is at the side of the pretty swimming pool area and is a fully equipped beautiful one bedroom apartment. The property also has a tennis court and facilities for bicycle rides and clay shoots and a large parking area. There is a large corral area for horses and stabling etc. The property is surrounded by 50,000sqm of good land, 40,000sqm of which is planted with productive olives. The property is now a well established business with a 4 to 6 month letting season and attracts clients from all over Europe and further afield. In the high season from June to September weekly rental is 4000euros per week, dropping to 2000 euros in low season. An exceptional property and business. All mains services are connected. #ref:APN5978
