This immaculate property is situated in the historic castle area of Álora and enjoys exceptional views from its 3 terraces. The entrance terrace is covered and has a small separate room with a feature fireplace and wash basin, so could provide an extra bedroom if needed. The accommodation is designed for family living with a lounge and dining area leading into the stylish fitted kitchen, which also has a large breakfast table, and through to a fully tiled bathroom. Up stairs, we have two double and a large single bedroom, all with fitted wardrobes. and a second bathroom. The main bedroom, has its own extensive private terrace with fascinating views over the town. A prettily tiled stairway leads up to a utility room and a fabulous roof terrace, with views of the castle and across the town to the mountains of El Chorro. All in all a beautifully maintained property with all mains services connected. #ref:APN7155
