This charming property in the historic centre of Álora which, as well as offering 2 bedrooms, a fitted kitchen and 3 internal rooms, has the most delightful rear patios and terraces, including a covered area with seating, a bread oven and a mass of mature plants, flowers and greenery. You enter into a hallway and from there into one of the living areas with a feature fireplace and access to the downstairs double bedrooms. A second internal sitting room leads to the Kitchen, which is fitted with plenty of units and then through to a good sized shower room. From the sitting room there are also stairs up to the second double bedroom and French doors to the wonderful outside areas. The house has been a very happy home for more than 20 years and is perfect as a full time home or for holidays. It's location, minutes from the Castle, the beautiful Church and the town centre, makes it a very attractive living or letting property. #ref:APN7757
